

Dear Mr. McMillan:

April 1, 1974

I will drop you a few lines to let you know that I received your latest letter.

I have to reconsider about the permission that I recently gave you.

I have recently been represented by one of Jimmy's lawyers, and he has advised me not to see you.

I have never talked to you about Jimmy's case anyway, as you said in one of your recent letters.

I have only talk to you about the farm life in Ewing. In any event you should know all about that by now anyway, and would have no more further reasons to talk to me.

I want you to take this letter as a notice not to come here for a visit at Marion.

If you want the right to visit, then I advise you to contact Mr. Lessor in Washington.

Sincerely,

John Farley Ray
